Fraternal Benefit, Savings and Life Insurance Society

On Sunday, May 21, 2017, Providence Association's Director of Life Insurance, Retirement and Savings Planning, Eugene A. Luciw, J.D. will visit St. Vladimir's Ukrainian Catholic Church, 309 Grier Avenue, Elizabeth, NJ, during and after the Divine Liturgy at 10:00 AM. Local Providence representatives may also attend.

After the Divine Liturgy (during the coffee hour), Gene will offer brief comments about Providence, its mission and role within the Ukrainian Church and community, and the society's life insurance, family protection, and retirement, IRA, annuity and other savings plans. He will also be available to address your specific questions and inquiries and to discuss your current policies and annuities, your insurance and savings needs, and any additional coverage or savings plans that you might require. Gene can also advise you of some unique ways in which you can benefit your Church or favorite charity through Providence products. Gene will be available to meet with you privately before or after the Liturgy.

Free no-obligation private consultations available: If you would like to consult with a representative privately at any time or place convenient to you, feel free to telephone Gene toll-free at 1-877-857-2284, or e-mail Gene at eluciw@provassn.com.

History. Now over 100 years old, Providence happily reports that it is rapidly expanding and actively reinvigorating its role as a social, religious, financial and fraternal arm of the Ukrainian Church in America and the broader Ukrainian American Community. Bishop Ortynsky, OSBM, the first Byzantine Rite Catholic bishop in America, founded and dedicated Providence to this mission in 1912.
